Building Resilient Credit Unions for the Future: A Global Perspective

Erin O'Hern

Senior Director, International Advocacy & Regulatory Counsel
World Council of Credit Unions

World Council

Global Movement By the Numbers

3.98 Trillion in Assets

World Council

Advocacy through many paths, ONE VOICE

WHERE WE ADVOCATE ON BEHALF OF CREDIT UNIONS WORLDWIDE

2026 Group of Twenty (G20)
2026: Miami, United States
(Host location rotates annually)

Influences financial standard setting bodies through annual Leaders' Declaration

Basel Committee on Banking Supervision (BCBS)
Basel, Switzerland

Establishes global capital and liquidity standards

Financial Stability Board (FSB)
Basel, Switzerland

Addresses financial stability issues, cybersecurity incident reporting, operational resilience

Financial Action Task Force (FATF)
Paris, France

Sets global AML/CFT standards

International Sustainability Standards Board (ISSB)
Frankfurt, Germany

Sets sustainability on climate risk disclosure requirements

International Accounting Standards Board (IASB)
London, England

Responsible for IFRS 9 (CECL) guidelines for credit union accounting standards

European Union (EU)
Brussels, Belgium

Sets regional financial standards often used globally

United Nations (UN)
New York, United States

Shapes global policy frameworks

Global Trends

2026 Global Regulatory Report

- Geopolitical environment
  - Impact on regulatory frameworks
- Evolving regulatory frameworks
  - Balancing areas of over and under regulation
  - Ensuring proper regulatory oversight and structure

Global Trends

- Climate resilience
  - Ensuring capital reaches local communities
  - Measuring and reporting impact
  - Risk management

Policy Statement: Advancing Climate Resilience

Global Trends

- AML/CFT
  - Financial inclusion
  - Changing regulations (digitalization)
  - Fraud

Understanding the Use of Alternative Means of Identification

World Council

Global Trends

Governance Global discussions

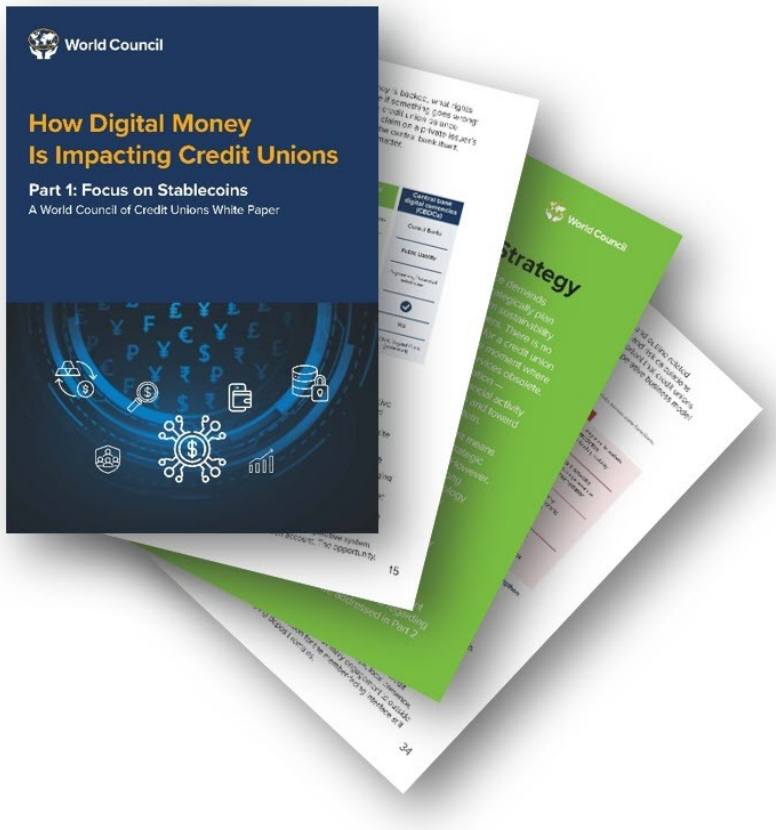
- Conflicts of interest, compensation, term limits, training and qualifications (fit and proper standards), independent board members, succession planning,
- Commitment to the mission
- Impact to regulatory framework

Global Trends – Digitalization

- Digitalization
  - Emerging regulation
  - Cybersecurity
  - Appropriate adoption of artificial intelligence
  - Access to payment channels, all forms of digital money, and developing financial services technology

Ethical Use of AI for Credit Unions

How Digital Money is Impacting Credit Unions: Part 1 Focus on Stablecoins



WORLD CREDIT UNION CONFERENCE

DUBLIN, IRELAND

25-28 JULY 2027

SAVE the DATE!

HOSTED BY:

World Council

CO-HOSTED BY:

IRELAND

IrishLeague of CreditUnions